

2012 U.S. - SPAIN YOUNG LEADERS PROGRAM

Alejandra Ceja,

Chief of Staff, Office of the Under Secretary of Education

Responsible for coordinating the Under Secretary's higher education agenda and activities related to postsecondary education, adult and career-technical education, federal student aid, and five White House Initiatives on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, Educational Excellence for Hispanics, Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Tribal Colleges and Universities, and Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships.

Ana Cubas

Chief of Staff to Los Angeles City Councilmember Jose Huizar, 14th Council district

Manage 20 field, administrative and policy staff. Advise the Councilmember on all aspects of his office, legislation and politics. Interact with City, union and community leaders. District is the size of 252000 constituents

Christopher Calabia,

Senior Vice President, Financial Institution Supervision Group

Head of "Complex Financial Institutions Operations," serving in a role equivalent to a chief operating officer for a function of 140 staff who regulate the largest, most systemically important U.S. and foreign financial institutions that have operations in New York. Oversee field operations for nine inspection teams that supervise and regulate the most complex U.S. and foreign banking organizations. Responsible for redesigning strategy, structure, and processes of our field work.

Cid Wilson,

Senior Equity Research Analyst, Cabrera Capital Markets LLC

Cover and write equity research reports, specializing in companies in the Specialty Retailing and Automotive industries with the goal of assessing investment merits for institutional investors and sales force. Produce a daily morning market commentary with economic, fundamental, and technical analysis for the institutional sales force and investors which preview daily catalysts that impact investment strategies. Build financial models for forecasting, sensitivity, and fundamental analysis for companies under coverage. Leverage equity research experience to institute and strengthen industry compliance protocols in line with best practices in the investment research industry. Successfully expanded the firm's client base by leveraging research products to establish new relationships.

Dean Feak,

Partner and Group Chair, DLA Piper LLC

Senior-level corporate, securities and tax attorney representing leading multinational clients in legal and strategic issues related to doing business overseas.

As Chair of Global Equity Group, which includes lawyers in dozens of countries around the world, leads projects on a wide range of international employment and global equity compensation issues around the world. As Co-Chair of the Pro Bono Committee, leads efforts to assist underrepresented and worthy charitable on a local, national and international basis, totaling millions of dollars in free legal services annually.

Advises on a wide range of legal and strategic issues related to doing business overseas, including: corporate, securities, regulatory, tax, labor, foreign exchange and data privacy. Counsels on cross-border equity-based compensation programs, international employment matters and global data privacy issues in Asia, Europe, Latin America, the Middle East and Africa. Leads cross-border deals including mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, restructurings, and integrations

Jonathan Alan Hutchison,

Senior Director, Corridor Development/ Government Affairs

National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak)

The position is part of Amtrak's Government Affairs & Communications team, and works with elected officials, states, regional planning organizations, and other public and private sector entities to institute new intercity passenger train service in an 11-state region. Additionally, he develops and executes political engagement/messaging strategies designed to facilitate Amtrak's strategic and economic objectives.

Marcelo Llorente,

Managing Partner of Llorente & Heckler, P.A.

Representing clients on public finance transactions, employment defense issues, governmental procurements, and real estate transactions.

Michael Masserman,

Director, Office of Advisory Committees,

International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce

Manage over 20 advisory committees which advise the President, Secretary of Commerce and the USTR on the formulation and implementation of trade policies; Collaborate with over 50 U.S. business executives to ensure that their private-sector views are incorporated into the Administration's key global trade policy initiatives; Engage with White House officials, Cabinet members, members of Congress, private-sector CEOs, economists, and academics on implementing export related strategies and policies.

Patricia Tamez

Executive Director, Congressional Hispanic Caucus

Works with 21 Hispanic Members of Congress to develop and execute their public policy agenda and communication strategy. Works with Congressional Leadership and the Administration to promote Caucus priorities. Additionally, she strategizes with national

Hispanics organisations, foreign governments, non-profit organisations and think tanks on initiatives to benefit the Latino Community

Jason Tepperman,

Director, Small Business Lending Fund

U.S. Department of the Treasury

Responsible for overall management of this $4 billion investment program, including investment selection, policy development, and operations (www.treasury.gov/sblf). My office's 2011 operating budget was $55 million and direct and indirect staff totaled 40.

Victoria Woodbury

Senior Legislative Staff to Senator Robert Menéndez

Legislative correspondent for Foreign Policy, Trade, Defense and Appropriations Spearhead legislative initiatives, draft legislation, track developments, plan and prepare hearings, craft talking points and speeches, assemble press releases.

Prepare and staff the Senator at meetings with foreign heads of state and diplomats.